NARRATIVE:

Kimberly Keys has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. Her convictions include assault with a deadly weapon, arson, possession of dangerous weapons, burglary, robbery, petty theft, driving under the influence of alcohol, resisting arrest, possession of controlled substances, prostitution with priors, shoplifting and failing to report. She has served multiple incarcerations the longest being 4 years for burglary. Keys was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 13, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Keys qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for possession of dangerous weapons is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
